

Culturally Responsive Lesson Plan Checklist

Use this checklist when planning or adapting lessons to ensure cultural responsiveness.

- Lesson objectives reflect diverse perspectives
- Materials include representation from various cultural backgrounds
- Examples and analogies are culturally inclusive
- Activities allow for different learning styles
- Opportunities for students to share cultural experiences are included
- Language used is clear and free from cultural bias
- Assessment methods are culturally fair and varied
- Collaboration and dialogue among students are encouraged
- Lesson connects to students' lives and experiences
- Reflection on cultural aspects of the lesson is incorporated